

Galtee Walking Club Privacy Notice

The Galtee Walking Club is committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. For any personal data you provide for the purposes of membership, the club is the Data Controller and is responsible for storing and otherwise processing that data in a fair, lawful, secure and transparent way.

What data is being collected?

You may give us information about you by filling in forms at an event or online, or by corresponding with us by phone, e-mail or otherwise. This includes information you provide when you register with the Club, or participate in discussion boards on our website. The information you give may include your name, date of birth, address, e-mail address, phone number, name of the Mountaineering Ireland (MI) affiliated Clubs with which you are registered and gender. We may also ask for relevant other data eg health information.

What is the legal basis for processing the data?

The reason we need your Data is to be able to administer your membership and provide the membership services you are signing up to when you register with the club. Our lawful basis for processing your personal information is that we have a contractual obligation to you as a member, to provide the services you are registering for.

Will the data be shared with any third parties?

When you become a member or renew your membership with the Galtee Walking Club you will automatically be registered as a member of MI. We will provide MI with your personal data which they will use to enable access to an online portal for you (www.mountaineering.ie - Login). This will enable you to sign into and update your MI details (which, among other things allows you to update your details and enter digital log of walks and avail of discounts on the online shop). It is vital, therefore, that a valid email address is given, so that you can ensure that your data is correct and so that you can set your own privacy settings. If you have any questions about the continuing privacy of your personal data when it is shared with MI, please contact dataprotection@mountaineering.ie The Club does not supply any personal data it holds for this purpose to any other third party.

How will the information be used?

We will maintain a database for all current members and this will enable us communicate with you as and when necessary. Relevant information will be forwarded to MI as above.

How long will the data be stored for?

We will hold your personal data on file for as long as you are a member with us. Member's data is updated every year on annual membership forms. Any personal data we hold on you will be securely destroyed after three years of inactivity on that member's account. Your data is not processed for any further purposes other than those detailed in this policy.

Your rights regarding your personal data

As a data subject you have the right at any time to request access to, rectification or erasure of your personal data; to restrict or object to certain kinds of processing of your personal data, including direct marketing; to the portability of your personal data and to complain to the Data Protection Commissioner's Office about the processing of your personal data. As a data subject you are not obliged to share your personal data with the Club. If you choose not to share your personal data.
